RE: Starfield
Transmission Line Alteration Project

Dear Landowner/Resident/Occupant/Business Owner:

On behalf of the ENMAX Power Stakeholder Relations team, we are providing an information package about our proposed Starfield Transmission Line Alteration Project (the Project).

We have included the following documents for your review:

- Project Newsletter: contains details about the pending Project, the area in which the Project is located, and the planned Project schedule; and,
- The Alberta Utilities Commission (AUC) Public Involvement Brochure: outlines the role of the AUC and the approval process related to certain types of projects.

This information is also available on our website at enmax.com/starfieldproject. On this site you can also find related documents and learn more about the Project.

Providing Your Input

Our team is committed to actively engaging with stakeholders and obtaining your feedback about the proposed Project – your input is valuable to us. The stakeholder consultation process will allow us to effectively share Project information and discuss any questions or concerns you may have in advance of filing the application for the Project with the AUC.

For more information or to provide feedback about the Project please feel free to reach out to us directly:

- Call us at 403-514-1471.
- Email us at stakeholderrelations@enmax.com.
- Use the online “Request a call back” feature at enmax.com/starfieldproject.

Thank you,

Stakeholder Relations
ENMAX Power

In the spirit of reconciliation, we respectfully acknowledge that we live and work on the traditional lands of Indigenous Peoples. ENMAX headquarters is in Calgary, Alberta, the traditional territory of the Blackfoot Confederacy, comprised of the Siksika, Kainai, Piikani, and Amskapi Piikuni Nations; the Tsuut’ina Nation; and the Îyârhe Nakoda Nations of Chiniki, Bearspaw, and Goodstoney, and home to the Métis Nation of Alberta, as well as many diverse Indigenous people who have made the city their home. We are committed to strengthening relationships with Indigenous Nations and peoples in all communities where we operate, through respect and collaboration.
