

ENMAX appoints new Chief Financial Officer

For Immediate Release – September 25, 2023

Calgary, Alta. – ENMAX Corporation (ENMAX) is pleased to announce that after a rigorous and competitive market process, Sheri Primrose has been appointed as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) effective September 25, 2023.

Sheri has spent the last 17 years of her career here at ENMAX where she's held progressively senior roles from a manager of corporate services to program director of our business and finance redesign to vice president, finance, strategic planning and corporate optimization. Through her collaborative and values-driven leadership style and commitment to teamwork, she's spearheaded many successful initiatives to optimize the delivery of strategic financial functions across the company and transform our financial management approach.

"I'm thrilled to continue working alongside Sheri, delivering on our strategy and shaping our future success," said Mark Poweska, ENMAX President and CEO. "Her strong record of accomplishment, focus on the customer and service-oriented leadership style will help lead ENMAX towards an even brighter future."

Sheri holds an Executive MBA from Smith School of Business at Queen's University, an executive coaching certification from Royal Roads University and a BBA in Accounting from SAIT. She serves on the board of directors at The Alex Community Health Centre.
