

ENMAX named one of Canada's Greenest Employers

Commitment to sustainability and environmental stewardship earns national recognition

For Immediate Release – Wednesday, April 17, 2024

Calgary, Alta. – ENMAX Corporation has been honoured as one of Canada's Greenest Employers by Mediacorp Canada. This recognition reflects ENMAX's commitment to sustainability and environmental stewardship—a legacy spanning 12 awards since 2009.

"ENMAX recognizes the role we play as an energy provider in preserving and caring for our environment," said Jennifer Saldana, director, ESG performance and reporting at ENMAX. "This recognition highlights our team's commitment to energy efficiency and environmental stewardship for our customers and communities."

For the award, Mediacorp Canada evaluated ENMAX using criteria including employee involvement and environmental management programs.

A few highlights that set ENMAX apart include:

- ENMAX's community partnerships to help consumers be more energy efficient, including collaborating with Green Calgary to provide tailored workshops for new homeowners and newcomers to Canada.
- ENMAX's environmental management programs and dedication to protecting the biodiversity around our facilities through the use of responsible land stewardship initiatives.
- ENMAX's role as a public advocate of energy conservation including offering online resources enabling ENMAX Easymax customers to effortlessly monitor and regulate their energy consumption.

"Thank you to our team members who are helping light the way to a cleaner energy future and to Mediacorp for recognizing ENMAX's commitment to a culture of environmental awareness," said Saldana.
