RE: DOWNTOWN WEST END 1.80L and 1.81L Transmission Lines
Request for Approval to Leave Remaining Segments of De-Energized Underground
Transmission Lines in Place

Dear Landowner/Resident/Occupant/Business Owner:

On behalf of the ENMAX Power Stakeholder Relations team, we are providing an information package about our pending application for approvals associated with transmission lines 1.80L and 1.81L located in the west end of downtown Calgary (Application).

We have included the following documents for your review:

- Newsletter: contains details about the pending Application, the area in which the subject facilities are located, and the planned Application schedule; and,
- The Alberta Utilities Commission (AUC) Public Involvement Brochure: outlines the role of the AUC and the approval process related to certain types of projects.

This information is also available on our website at enmax.com/downtownwestend. On this site, you can also find related documents and learn why ENMAX Power is filing the Application.

The AUC Process

In Q1 2025, ENMAX Power will file an application with the AUC regarding certain portions of transmission lines 1.80L and 1.81L. The AUC will review the Application through its formal process, where stakeholders may be provided an additional opportunity to participate. To learn more about the AUC process and how you can become involved, please refer to the brochure included in this package titled, “Public involvement in a proposed utility development”.

To learn more about the AUC regulatory process, please contact:

Thank you,

In the spirit of reconciliation, we respectfully acknowledge that we live and work on the traditional lands of Indigenous Peoples. ENMAX headquarters is in Calgary, Alberta, the traditional territory of the Blackfoot Confederacy, comprised of the Siksika, Kainai, Piikani, and Amskapi Piikuni Nations; the Tsuut’ina Nation; and the Iyârhe Nakoda Nations of Chiniki, Bearspaw, and Goodstoney, and home to the Métis Nation of Alberta, as well as many diverse Indigenous people who have made the city their home. We are committed to strengthening relationships with Indigenous Nations and peoples in all communities where we operate, through respect and collaboration.
